What is NILE?

Norwich Institute for Language Education (NILE) is a world-leading centre of excellence in professional development for English language teachers, trainers and other education professionals, offering training from initial qualifications to an MA, both face to face and online.

Since 1995, NILE has provided courses for over 40,000 participants from more than 90 countries. All NILE's courses involve a significant element of English language improvement.

In addition to programmes in Norwich, NILE provides English Language Teaching (ELT) project management, consultancy and tailor-made courses for teachers of English for institutions and ministries worldwide.

Face-to-Face Courses

NILE offers courses for individuals in Norwich, and tailor-made courses for groups both in-country and in the UK.

- Covering all aspects of teaching methodology and skills, from primary and secondary education to trainer development
- Content designed to meet individual needs and priorities through pre-course surveys
- Internationally renowned trainers
- Practical, hands-on teaching with reference to relevant theory
- Time built in to consider how to adapt the content to the participant's own professional context and create a strategy for putting ideas into practice
- Bespoke courses specially designed for education ministries, higher education institutes and other overseas organisations
- Digital learning platform and online resource centre
- Norwich courses also include:
 - extensive ELT library
 - cultural and social programme
 - homestay and residential accommodation
 - dedicated student welfare team
- Accredited by Equals and the British Council for the teaching of English

NILE Online

NILE's interactive and tutor-led online courses allow participants to combine CPD with personal and professional responsibilities through cutting-edge digital tools.

- 8-week and 3-week courses
- Assessed by assignment
- Led by internationally-known expert tutors
- Maximum 16 participants on each course
- Practical application of theoretical ideas
- Bespoke digital collaboration tools
- Customised courses and blended learning options available for groups
- Inspected and accredited by AQUEDUTO

Professional Award for Teacher Educators

- Designed to develop, measure and validate the competences required for planning and running in-service and pre-service language teacher education programmes
- Delivered in Norwich in a 2-week programme with integrated assessment
- Recognised by the British Council as a certification of teacher training competence

MA in Professional Development for Language Education

NILE's MA is a comprehensive postgraduate programme for ELT professionals wishing to develop their professional skills. The MA is validated by the University of Chichester to ensure high academic standards.

- Core module in Language Teaching Methodology
- Nine elective modules
- Dissertation: research or artefact
- Recognition of Prior Learning, exempting some candidates from the core or an elective module.
- Face-to-face, online or blended learning modules to be completed over a period of up to six years.
- Full access to NILE's online ELT resource centre
- Modular structure to increase flexibility and spread cost
- Awarded by University of Chichester

Cambridge Courses: Delta and CELTA

Delta, the most highly regarded and widely recognised qualification for experienced English language teachers, is available online with NILE.

In Norwich, NILE offers The Cambridge Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA).

NILE also partners with institutions worldwide to deliver Delta and set up CELTA centres.

Both Delta and CELTA are awarded by Cambridge Assessment English, part of Cambridge University.

Consultancy

NILE sends consultants and trainers all over the world to provide practical guidance and support in the field of ELT. So far, NILE trainers and advisors have worked with Ministries of Education, the British Council, universities and other institutions in over 40 countries.

Project areas have included EMI, curriculum renewal, syllabus design, testing and assessment, and materials development, as well as teacher training, trainer training and continuing professional development.

Consultancies are always designed to be appropriate to specific contexts and to serve clients' identified needs.
