CELTA

Time for a career change?

Want to travel?

Thinking about teaching English?

Formalising your TEFL skills?

'This was the first step into English language teaching'

The Cambridge Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA) is an initial qualification for people who want to teach English as a foreign language. No previous experience is necessary; the course will help you develop all the essential skills needed.

'A fantastic experience...really inspiring'

During the four-week intensive course, you will have sessions on methodology and language awareness, extensive teaching practice and have experienced tutors on-hand to help you each step of the way.

'Supervised teaching practice gives you a sense of what the job is like'

You will teach a real class for six hours, observed by experienced trainers who will give you feedback on how to develop your teaching.

'I wanted international recognition'

The CELTA qualification is awarded by Cambridge English Language Assessment, part of Cambridge University. NILE, known across the world for the quality of its teacher education and development programmes, provides excellent networking opportunities for your future career: many NILE CELTA graduates find they can step into a job almost immediately.

'Constructive learning builds your confidence'

Although many CELTA trainees have no teaching experience, a teacher with little formal training will give them the ability and confidence to continue to develop their teaching skills, formally supported by an internationally recognised qualification.

'After seven years of teaching abroad, CELTA gave me new perspective, encouragement and knowledge'

As well as the supervised teaching practice and taught sessions, you will observe other classes, undertake four written assignments and have at least one individual tutorial. This step-by-step approach will broaden your knowledge of language and methodology, giving you all the skills you need to walk straight into the classroom.

'The skills will apply to other jobs'

Giving presentations, creating materials, analysing texts, developing interpersonal skills, persuading and influencing people – these are all things teachers do! Whichever path you take in the future, the CELTA gives you the confidence to do it well.

'It changed my job prospects overnight... amazing how valuable five letters can be!'
