

Content and Language Integrated Learning (1 week course)

Overview and Outcomes

The course will enable you to develop understanding, expertise and skills related to Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL). As part of the course you will consider the qualities and skills required by teachers involved in CLIL, as well as the modes of delivery and types of classroom interaction most appropriate to CLIL. The course explores in practical ways the materials and methodology appropriate to CLIL, so that you will be able to develop a range of practical activities for CLIL lessons and programmes. By the end of this course you will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to create your own high quality CLIL lessons.

Trainers

NILE's highly experienced trainers are international experts not only in their fields, but also of working with teachers to continue professional development. Read more about NILE's trainers, their experience and interests at The NILE Team on the NILE website.

Teaching approaches

- We make courses practical and 'hands-on', with reference to relevant theory
- Our classes are participant-centred and collaborative, designed to build knowledge and confidence
- We use activities and tasks to help you apply the course content to your setting

Who is the course suitable for?

- Teachers who deliver subjects across the school and university curriculum through the medium of English or another foreign language
- Language teachers who include curriculum subject content in their lessons and teachers of subjects contemplating delivery through English or another foreign language.
- Participants with a minimum language level corresponding to B1* on the Common European Framework

*If your level is below B1, you may be interested in our Language Improvement for Teachers course.

Content

Content and Language Integrated Learning (1 week course) includes content drawn from some or all of the following areas:

- Models, theories and principles of teaching & learning for CLIL
- Developing a range of practical activities for CLIL lessons and programmes
- Guiding understanding and encouraging spoken output in CLIL
- Identifying the language of curricular subjects at word, sentences & text levels
- Formative assessment principles and practice in CLIL
- Promoting and supporting thinking skills in CLIL
- Developing CLIL materials in line with CLIL materials design principles;
- Demonstrating understanding of CLIL through a micro-teaching task

Specific course content comes from feedback you and other participants give us through pre-course questionnaires, identifying your needs and priorities.

We build time into the course for reflection, to consider how to adapt the content to your own professional context.

We then support you in creating a strategy for putting your ideas into practice on returning to your institution.

All NILE courses involve a significant element of English language improvement and/or the development of language awareness.
