

Delta Application Tasks

Delta Module 1

You will be given a short text written by a lower intermediate learner in response to the following task:

Write about the advantages and disadvantages of using laptops.

A. Identify three key strengths and three key weaknesses of the text. Provide an example of each strength and each weakness.

Your answer should focus on some or all of the areas listed below:

- Task achievement
- Appropriacy of genre and style
- Organisation
- Cohesion
- Punctuation

B. Which one of the weaknesses identified above would you choose to prioritise? Give three reasons for your choice.

Delta Module 2

In Module 2, in addition to writing background essays, candidates are required to plan and deliver lessons, and reflect on their teaching of those lessons.

A. Describe a lesson which you have recently taught, outlining

- a) your intentions in terms of learning outcomes prior to the lesson
- b) how the lesson went
- c) what you learnt from the lesson

(500 words)

B. Write an outline of the general beliefs and principles that guide you as a teacher, indicating how these beliefs and principles inform your teaching.

(500 words)

Delta Module 3

Describe a group of learners you teach, focusing on one of the Delta M3 specialist areas as listed on the website:

A. Provide a profile of the group and their English learning needs and goals. (about 100 words)

B. Specify 6 areas you would focus on for these students and why you would concentrate on these areas. The areas may be grammatical, lexical, phonological, skills-based or learner training strategies. (about 750 words)